

5th and 6th Amendment Skits

Directions: You and your partners will be given a clause in either the 5th or 6th amendment. It is your job to follow the steps below to best represent the protections in each clause.

Steps:

- 1) Take a second to read 10.5 (189-191 in the textbook) only the parts on the 5th and 6th amendment.
- 2) Research the clause to find out the meaning and how it's applied in real life.
- 3) Create a skit that explains the protection that you've been assigned. The skit can either show the protection being denied or applied.
- 4) All skits need to be under 3 min.

Suggestions for skits:

- Find a court case and reenact it (Google cases involving your topic)
- Create a mock trial (Your own fictional case)
- Involve current events
- Search YouTube for skit suggestions

5th and 6th amendment protections

- 1). Grand Jury
- 2). Double Jeopardy
- 3). Self-Incrimination
- 4). Due Process
- 5). Protections of private property with fair compensation
- 6). You have to be provided an attorney
- 7). You have the right to hear charges and witnesses against you
- 8). You have the right to a speedy public trial

9). You have the right to an impartial jury

Homework:

Finish reading 10.5 on the 7th and 8th Amendment

Come in ready to present