

Ch. 12, Sec. 10 — Political Cartoon questions

#1

- What does Uncle Sam represent? How does he look?
- Who is Uncle Sam addressing?
- What is Uncle Sam telling them?
- What does the cartoonist think of the U.S.? How can you tell?

#2

- Who is the man on the boat? What does he represent?
- Who is the cannon focused on? Why?
- What is backing up the “Monroe Doctrine” sign?
- What does the crying man in the straw hat represent? Why is he drawn this way?

#3

- What country do the boats belong to? How can you tell?
- What do the boats represent?
- Who is looking at the boats? What do they represent?
- What does “Let it be written so it can be read” mean?

#4

- What does Uncle Sam represent? How does he look?
- What do the other four people represent?
- Where is Uncle Sam’s hat? Why is it there?
- What is the message of this cartoon?

#5

- What does Uncle Sam represent?
- What is Uncle Sam carrying? What does it represent?
- Where is Uncle Sam? Why is that important?
- What is the message of this cartoon?

#6

- Who do the three people in this cartoon represent? How can you tell?
- What is written on the ground? What does this mean?
- What does the man in the helmet look like he wants to do?
- How does Uncle Sam feel about this? How can you tell?

#7

- Who does the rooster represent? How can you tell? How is he drawn?
- Who is in the coop? What is keeping them in the coop?
- What do the two chickens running away represent?
- What does the cartoonist think will happen to those two chickens?

#8

- What does Uncle Sam represent? How does he look?
- What does the fence represent? Who is it keeping out?
- How are the South American countries drawn? What would this mean?
- What does Uncle Sam say to the South American countries? How does he treat or feel about them?

#9

- What does Uncle Sam represent? How does he look?
- Who are the hunters? What do they represent?
- What does the sign mean? Where is it located?
- What do the ducks represent? Why are some big and some small?

#10

- What does Uncle Sam represent?
- Where is Uncle Sam and what is he doing?
- Who else is in the cartoon? What does he represent?
- What is the message of this cartoon?

#11

- Who is the man in the blue jacket? How do you know?
- Who is the guarding or protecting? Where are they from? How can you tell?
- Who is on the other side of the water? What do they represent?
- What is the message of this cartoon?