

Name _____ HR _____

Up Before Daybreak Scavenger Hunt

Directions: The goal of this activity is to get you to explore some of the information in the book but also to encounter some powerful images as you search. Some of the information will be harder to find, don't get discouraged use the hints to help you. The hints often refer to a picture in the book or a title of a section.

1). In 1793 America exported 2000 bales of cotton to Great Britain 67 years later in 1860 how many bales of cotton was America exporting to Great Britain? (Hint: Look above the business of cotton)

Fill in the blanks below

2). For centuries, people have produced goods by _____. But beginning around the middle of the 18th century, the new invention of new, _____ - driven _____ transformed how people lived and worked. At the heart of these changes was _____. (Hint: look for something that was used to transport cotton to England)

3). One problem with cotton was getting the seeds out; what machine solved this problem? (Hint: find a picture of the machine and you will find the answer)

4). The Industrial Revolution began in what type of industry in America? (Hint: Last but certainly not least of Chapter 3)

5). What did cotton growers and farmers in the north rely on to get their crops to markets? (Hint: The answer is not by horse and buggy but you're getting warmer)

6). How did Hannah lose the hair on the top of her head as a young girl? (Hint: I bet you'll find it in Hanna's story)

7). What age range were girls that worked in the cotton mills? (Hint: Find the advertisement)

8). How many hours a week did girls work in the mills? How much money did they earn? (Hint: you will find the answer above: Not the right sort of life for a child)

9). What "re-invention" launched the beginning of the Industrial Revolution in America? (Hint: find the picture of a woman working with this invention look left)

10). In 1874 what law in Massachusetts was passed to help women and children in the mills? (Hint: To give birth?)

11). As the Industrial Revolution increased demand for cotton, plantations spread to the west; how far west did they go? (Hint: find the woman wearing a large Safety Pin)

12). What was needed to run the spinning jenny? (Hint: Lots of bobbins)

13). What was cotton called before the Civil War that suggested it was royalty? (Hint: After Sarah's Story but before it was Light)